I give permission for my children/youths (names listed above) to participate in the 2022 Tulsa Chinese Christian Church VBS.

In case of medical emergency, the following procedures will be followed to render proper medical treatment for the injured child unless notified otherwise in writing.

1. In the case of accident or sudden illness of the child. TCCC or its representative will call the primary contact (parent/guardian). If the primary contact cannot be reached, TCCC or its representative will call the secondary contact.
2. In the further event that TCCC or its representative cannot reach either the primary or the secondary contacts, I hereby authorize TCCC and its representatives to dial 911 and render emergency medical treatment for my child.
3. I shall be liable and agree to pay all costs and expenses (medical and transportation) incurred in connection with such medical and dental service rendered to the aforementioned child.
4. I agree to hold harmless and indemnify TCCC and its representatives for any liability sustained by said church as the result of the negligent, willful or intentional acts of said child, including expenses incurred attendant thereto.
5. It is the responsibility of the parent or guardian to notify TCCC of any changes in medical condition, guardianship, address or phone number in writing to the church office.
